

The natural choice
for friendly, expert advice on insurance,
risk management
and financial services

Chairman's message

When we started the business more than 40 years ago, we had one core focus: to provide personal, straightforward advice to all our clients.

We must have done something right, because word got around and the business has grown ever since.

And although more than four decades have passed, nothing has changed; I expect every member of the team to treat our clients in the same way we always have – by providing expert, friendly advice every time.

I hope you find this brochure useful, but I would very much encourage you to talk to us – for as long as you like, about whatever you like.

Alan Boswell,
Executive Chairman

Additional services

Claims

Our dedicated claims team will manage your insurance claim and support you through the process. You'll work with one claims manager, so will have a personal point of contact helping you throughout what can be a stressful time.

Our claims managers have previous experience of working with major insurers, giving them valuable insight into the claims process, allowing them to bring your case to the best possible conclusion.

Some of the ways you will benefit from this service include:

- Early intervention when losses occur
- Access to your own expert claims handler
- Site visits

If you need to make a claim you can call us and we'll help you every step of the way.

Underwriting

We have always taken an individual approach to our clients because we know one size rarely fits all.

Our in-house underwriting team takes this tailored attention to detail even further. They use their expertise to create unique policies with bespoke covers that benefit our clients – so you get exactly the right insurance for your needs.

Our underwriting service allows us to devise, design and price products tailored to protect you.

Private clients

Our industry awards and accreditations tell everyone what sort of organisation we are, but it is the individual care our clients receive that tells them what sort of people we are.

Many of our corporate clients become private clients and vice-versa. We think this says a lot about the level of trust that our expert advisers earn.

We can arrange all types of personal insurance for you, from car and landlord insurance, to specialist cover for high-value homes and boats.

In fact, we know that off-the-shelf products are often unsuitable, so we provide a personal service and tailored solutions. We can arrange independent valuations and ensure that valuable items, including antiques and fine art, are fully covered.

But it's not just about insurance for your possessions. We can review your health, life and private medical cover to ensure that you and your loved ones have access to the best treatments if the worst happens.

Whatever your requirements, you'll have access to a dedicated contact who can provide ongoing insurance advice and support whenever you need it.

As a reflection of this, we have been presented with a Platinum-Trusted Service Award by independent review site Feefo, having consistently achieved outstanding customer service scores.

Our generous employees have raised thousands of pounds for charities across the UK, through all sorts of fundraising initiatives from head-shaving and biking-riding to cake-baking and Christmas jumper days.

2019 saw the launch of the Alan Boswell Group Charitable Trust, an independent Trust with the sole aim of distributing a percentage of company profits to local good causes.

Over the last three years the Trust has awarded over £1.5m in grants to charities and community organisations across the East of England. The Trust has supported many causes including mental health charities, the elderly community, children's charities, and animal welfare organisations.
